PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Springfield Crossing is a 347-unit multifamily community located in Springfield, Virginia, within Fairfax County's established Springfield/Franconia submarket. The property benefits from a highly accessible Northern Virginia location that combines suburban convenience with direct connectivity to Washington, D.C., and the region's major employment centers, including Tysons, National Landing, and the Rosslyn-Ballston corridor. Residents are proximate to Springfield Town Center's extensive retail, dining, and entertainment options, as well as the broader Springfield Commercial Revitalization District, which continues to advance mixed-use development and infrastructure improvements. The surrounding economy is supported by Fairfax County's diverse employment base, including government, defense, technology, professional services, healthcare, and retail, with significant federal-sector demand along the I-95 corridor. TSA headquarters is directly adjacent to the property as well, a 625k SF complex that opened in 2021, employing over 3,000 people. The area also offers access to workforce and educational resources, including Northern Virginia Community College's Medical Education Campus and George Mason University. Transportation connectivity is a key differentiator, with nearby access to the Franconia–Springfield transit hub, providing Metrorail, Virginia Railway Express, Fairfax Connector, and Metrobus service, in addition to immediate access to Interstates 95, 495, and 395.

The property was built and placed in service in 2002 under the Section 42 Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) program. There is an existing regulatory agreement in place which requires all units to be rented to income qualifying residents earning no more than 60% of the Area Median Income (AMI) limits, which are provided by the Virginia Housing Development Authority.

SPRINGFIELD, VA LOCATION OVERVIEW

Springfield, Virginia is an established Fairfax County community strategically positioned within the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area. Located approximately 15 miles southwest of Downtown Washington, D.C., Springfield offers residents a suburban setting with direct access to Northern Virginia's major employment, retail, and transportation corridors. The area is anchored by the Springfield Interchange—where Interstates 95, 395, and 495 converge—providing efficient regional connectivity to Washington, D.C., Arlington, Alexandria, Tysons, Fort Belvoir, and employment centers throughout Fairfax County. The area also benefits from its proximity to the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) Headquarters, a major federal employment center located adjacent to the property, further supporting the area's role within the region's government and homeland security employment network. Springfield is also served by the Franconia–Springfield transportation hub, which provides Metrorail, Virginia Railway Express, Metrobus, Fairfax Connector, and intercity bus service. This connectivity also provides convenient access to National Landing in Arlington and Alexandria, one of the region's fastest-growing mixed-use districts and home to Amazon's HQ2, Virginia Tech's Innovation Campus, and a growing concentration of technology, defense, and professional-services employers. Retail and lifestyle amenities are centered around Springfield Town Center and the surrounding commercial district, which offers a broad mix of shopping, dining, entertainment, and daily-needs services. Supported by Fairfax County's diverse government, defense, technology, professional-services, healthcare, and retail employment base, Springfield continues to benefit from its accessibility, established residential character, and ongoing planning efforts focused on strengthening the Franconia–Springfield transit station area and community business district.

Artificial Intelligence tools may have been used in creating this information package and the information herein.

Berkadia Real Estate Advisors LLC and Berkadia Real Estate Advisors Inc. and Seller strongly recommend that prospective purchasers conduct an in-depth investigation of every physical and financial aspect of the property to determine if the property meets their needs and expectations. We also recommend that prospective purchasers consult with their tax, financial and legal advisors on any matter that may affect their decision to purchase the property and the subsequent consequences of ownership.

All parties are advised that in any property the presence of certain kinds of molds, funguses, or other organisms may adversely affect the property and the health of some individuals. Berkadia Real Estate Advisors LLC and Berkadia Real Estate Advisors Inc. recommend, if prospective buyers have questions or concerns regarding this issue, that prospective buyers conduct further inspections by a qualified professional.

The Seller retains the right to withdraw, modify or cancel this offer to sell at any time and without any notice or obligation. Any sale is subject to the sole and unrestricted approval of Seller, and Seller shall be under no obligation to any party until such time as Seller and any other necessary parties have executed a contract of sale containing terms and conditions acceptable to Seller and such obligations of Seller shall only be those in such contract of sale.
